

MINISTRY OF COOPERATIVES & SMES DEVELOPMENT

STATE DEPARTMENT OF CO-OPERATIVE DEVELOPMENT

ETHICS COMMISSION FOR CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES (ECCOS)

VETTING CRITERIA FOR ELIGIBILITY IN COMMITTEE/BOARD, SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE MEMBERS ELECTIONS AND EMPLOYEES APPOINTMENT IN CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES

1. PREAMBLE

Vetting is the process of performing background checks on a person before offering them appointment/employment or conferring them an award. Property or Assets are also vetted to determine their usefulness and/or value.

Vetting criteria includes amongst other considerations the concepts of honesty, solvency and competence. This extends to the conduct of the member and employee both in dealing with the Co-operative society and the public.

Vetting criteria will be based on the characteristics of age, citizenship, academics, professionalism, qualifications, experience, health, security, ethical behavior and legal obligations of the applicant.

The principles and values of leadership as stated in section 73 of the Leadership Act will be applied in the vetting criteria which include:- personal integrity, competence, objectivity and impartiality, decision making, selfless service based on public interest, honesty, declaration of personal interest that may conflict with personal duties, accountability to the public, discipline and commitment to the people.

Eligibility will also be based on the requirements that an applicant:

- i. Pays his taxes
- ii. Has not abused public office
- iii. Has no criminal record
- iv. Has not defaulted on loans
- v. Has not conducted himself in unprofessional manner
- vi. Is medically proven to be mentally stable
- vii. Knowledge and experience

- viii. Reputation and character
- ix. Is not a beneficiary of international money laundering, drug trafficking or subversive activities.
- x. Shall be required to contribute a minimum of sh. 20,000 towards the monthly Sacco deposits account

It is important to emphasize that these categories are not intended to be exhaustive or definitive. The fit and proper test exists to protect the interests of members, actual and potential.

2. APPLICABILITY

These vetting criteria shall apply to all committee/board and supervisory, corruption prevention committees and employees of co-operative societies.

3. INTERPRETATION

“Applicant” means a member who is seeking for an elective post or a person applying for a job in the co-operative society.

“Regulator” means the Commissioner for Co-operative Development and includes Ethics Commission for Co-operative Societies who is the administrator of this vetting criteria, Sacco Societies Regulator and Nominating Committee Authority (SASRA) as stipulated in the Sacco Societies Act (SSA) or any other person whom powers of the Commissioner have been delegated in accordance with the Co-operative Societies Act (CSA).

“Committee” means a member who is elected to hold office in a cooperative society. This shall include board, supervisory or corruption prevention committee member.

“Corruption Prevention Committee” means a committee elected to handle corruption incidences in the co-operative society.

“Employee” means any person recruited and remunerated on a permanent or on a contractual basis.

“Fit and proper test” means a test administered on a person vying for office or appointment based on the minimum standards of the vetting criteria.

The Regulator and Nominating Committee must be satisfied that any person who is, or is to be, an employee, board, supervisory or corruption prevention committee member of a Cooperative Society should be a 'fit and proper' person to hold that position.

4. PROCEDURES FOR ADMINISTRATION OF THE VETTING CRITERIA

Every Cooperative Society shall appoint an independent elections and Nomination Committee in accordance with its elections and nomination policy.

A person intending to vie for office in a co-operative society shall submit a dully filled fit and proper test forms to a nominating committee 2 weeks prior to the holding of the elections. Each cooperative society will be required to establish procedures for appointing a nominating committee which for this purpose shall be an ad-hoc committee.

The nominating committee will verify the information in the FPTF on submission and either approve or reject the application.

The Nominating Committee shall have been appointed in a prior general meeting and shall comprise of a minimum of 3 ordinary members.

5. MAIN VETTING CRITERIA

5.1 Honesty, integrity and Reputation

The values of honesty, integrity and reputation will include:

- Fair dealing with Members;
- Establishment and maintenance of a proper compliance culture, which demonstrates proper respect of legal, Regulatory, Nominating Committee and professional obligations;
- Disposition and good faith in dealings with Regulator and Nominating Committees.

In determining a person's honesty, integrity and reputation, the Regulator and Nominating Committee and the nominating committee will consider matters that include but not limited to, those set out hereunder.

5.2 Competence and capability

In determining a person's competence and capability, the Regulator and Nominating Committee will have regard to matters including but not limited to:

- (1) Whether the person satisfies the relevant requirements of Leadership and Integrity Act, 2012, the Public Officer Ethics Act, 2003, Sacco Societies Act and Regulations, 2008, Co-operative Societies Act, 2004, and Rules and the bylaws to perform;
- (2) Whether the person has demonstrated by experience and training that the person is able, or will be able if approved, to perform functions of the said office.

5.3 Proof of Status

In the context of the regulation of co-operative society the purpose of the vetting process is to protect the members from those who are not fit and proper.

If, therefore, the Regulator and Nominating Committee is left with a substantial doubt as to the fitness and propriety of an applicant, the correct course would be for the application to be rejected.

5.4 Basic Elements

The fit and proper test exists to protect the interests of members, actual and potential.

An assessment of fitness and propriety may require fit and proper assessments to be made of those candidates involved in running the Co-operative Society. Such candidates will abide by the rules and guidelines that govern membership into the Board.

5.5 Competence and capability to conduct business

In determining competence and capability, the Regulator and Nominating Committee will have to consider whether committee members are capable, at all times, of performing the role for which they have been engaged or for which they are being recruited. Consideration will be taken as to the appropriate qualifications held, other training undertaken as well as any informal experience. Efficiency is also a relevant consideration.

In addition, the Regulator and Nominating Committee will wish to ensure that the applicant's election to the committee/board does not result in any unacceptable conflicts of interest.

5.6 Financial position

The Regulator and Nominating Committee will have to be satisfied that the applicant has financial resources sufficient to meet personal commitments on a continuous basis, as well as the ability to withstand the financial risks to which the business is exposed (indemnity).

The financial positions of the applicant, its Board and its key individuals are also likely to throw light on their prudence and ability to withstand financial temptation.

5.7 Compliance with Sacco Bylaws

The Nominating Committee will have to be satisfied that the applicant has satisfied the requirements of the Sacco Bylaws on eligibility for membership in the board and supervisory committee as outlined here under:

By Law 37.1: ELIGIBILITY FOR MEMBERSHIP TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

No person shall be eligible for membership in the board and supervisory committee of the society if he/she: -
